COLLECTIONIST - Sideboard

"Collectionist" Collection design Bartoli Design

Wooden sideboard with brass base and handles. Whether you are a collector or not, everyone is surrounded by little everyday objects or precious things, important in our life, but which often we don't know where to keep safe and where to find them. Collectionist Design is inspired by the secretaire of last centuries: a furniture which contains, organizes and conserves items and documents in its internal little spaces. The wall unit is an invitation to touch the rounded surfaces and appreciate the bronzed handles which give to this piece an artistic value.
